THE BIBLIOTHECA SACRA

VOLUME LXIX. 1912

---

In 1843 the BIBLIOTHECA SACRA was founded by Dr. Edward Robinson, and three numbers were issued in New York City. In 1844 it was removed to Andover, Massachusetts, where the publication of the present series began, under the editorship of Professors Bela B. Edwards and Edwards A. Park, with the special coöperation of Dr. Robinson and Professor Moses Stuart. In 1851 the American Biblical Repository (which was begun in Andover in 1831 by Dr. Robinson and later removed to New York City) was united with the BIBLIOTHECA SACRA. In 1864 the Christian Review (the organ of the Baptists) and in 1871 the Theological Eclectic were merged with it. Professor Edwards A. Park continued as its principal editor until the close of its fortieth volume (1883). Since that time, for a period of twenty-seven years, Professor G. Frederick Wright has been its leading editor, and with representative associate editors has continued the Quarterly in the line of its original projectors.

Never in all its history has the BIBLIOTHECA SACRA had a wider or abler set of contributors than it has at the present time. Its continuity gives it, in all the centers of learning throughout the world, a unique place among American periodicals. Its statement of the essential truths of criticism, science, philosophy, and theology should be read and digested by every one who essays to go at all below the surface of things. Its 54,000 pages constitute a library of unrivaled excellence.
